Civil Action No. 01-CV-0764

(Judge William W. Caldwell)

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

CORRECTIONS DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR AN ENLARGEMENT OF TIME TO RESPOND TO PLAINTIFF'S INTERROGATORIES NUNC PRO TUNC

Defendants Martin Horn, Robert Meyers, and Larry Lidgett ("Corrections Defendants"), by and through their attorney, John J. Talaber, Assistant Counsel, respectfully request this Honorable Court to grant them an enlargement of time nunc pro tunc until July 31, 2002, to respond to Plaintiff's Interrogatories directed to the Corrections Defendants. The following averments are made in support of this Motion:

Parties and Nature of Action:

1. Plaintiff William Clark is an inmate currently incarcerated at the State Correctional Institution at Rockview ("SCI-Rockview"). See Complaint (doc. 1), ¶2.

2. Clark named the following Department of Corrections employees as Defendants ("Corrections Defendants"): (1) former Secretary of the Department, Martin Horn; (2) SCI-Rockview Superintendent, Robert W. Meyers; and (3) former SCI-Rockview Corrections Health Care Administrator, Larry Lidgett. See Complaint, ¶¶ 3, 4, 7.
3. Additionally, Clark named as Defendants the contracted medical provider at SCI-Rockview: (1) Wexford Health Sources, Inc ("Wexford"); and (2) Wexford Medical Director, Dr. John Symons. James D. Young, Esquire, represents both parties in this action. See Complaint, ¶¶ 5,6; see also Entry of Appearance (doc. 11).
4. This is a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action alleging deliberate indifference to the treatment of Clark's Hepatitis C condition in violation of his Eighth Amendment rights under the United States Constitution. Clark also has pendent state claims of negligence and medical malpractice. Clark seeks compensatory and punitive damages, as well as, declaratory and injunctive relief. See Complaint, ¶¶ 8-58; Relief Requested, pp. 10-11.

Relevant Procedural History:

A. Substantive Issues:

5. Clark filed the Complaint on May 2, 2001. (Doc. 1).

6. All the Defendants waived service of summons on August 2, 2001. (Doc. 12).
7. On September 10, 2001, Defendants Wexford and Dr. Symons waived reply to the Complaint pursuant to their rights under 42 U.S.C. §1997(e), as amended by §803(d) of the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995. (Doc. 13).
8. On September 14, 2001, the Corrections Defendants waived reply to the Complaint pursuant to their rights under 42 U.S.C. §1997(e), as amended by §803(d) of the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995. (Doc. 14).
9. On March 25, 2002, the Corrections Defendants' filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. (Doc. 20).
10. The Corrections Defendants, after receiving an enlargement of time, filed the supporting documents to their Motion for Summary Judgment respectively on April 19 and 22, 2002. (Docs. 24-28).
11. Additionally, the Court directed Plaintiff to file his Brief in opposition to the Corrections Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment within thirty (30) days of his receipt of the Corrections Defendants' responses to his Interrogatories. (Doc. 36).

B. Discovery Issues:

12. On January 2, 2002, Clark served the following: (1) a Request for Production of Documents directed to all the Defendants; and (2) Interrogatories directed to Horn, Meyers, and Lidgett.
13. On February 4, 2002, the Corrections Defendants sought an enlargement of time to respond to Plaintiff's interrogatories until March 21, 2002. The Court granted the Corrections Defendants' request by Order dated February 8, 2002. (Docs. 15, 16).
14. On March 25, 2002, the Corrections Defendants filed a Motion for a Protective Order regarding Plaintiff's Interrogatories to the Corrections Defendants with a supporting brief to the Motion. (Docs. 17, 18). That same day, the Corrections Defendants served Plaintiff with a response to his Request for Production of Documents.
15. Plaintiff filed his Brief in Opposition to the Corrections Defendants' Motion for a Protective Order on April 12, 2002. (Doc. 22).
16. On April 30, 2002, the Corrections Defendants filed a Reply Brief to their Motion for a Protective Order. (Doc. 31).
17. The Court, by Memorandum and Order dated May 2, 2002, denied the Corrections Defendants' Motion for a Protective Order and directed them to respond to Plaintiff's Interrogatories on or before July 8, 2002. (Doc. 37).

18. The Corrections Defendants responses to Plaintiff's Interrogatories are past due. The Corrections Defendants, for the reasons that follow infra paragraph 21, respectfully submit this Motion for an Enlargement of Time Nunc Pro Tunc to serve Plaintiff with a response via facsimile to his Interrogatories on or before July 31, 2002.
19. Plaintiff, on June 5, 2002, filed a motion to compel discovery relating to the Corrections Defendants' response to his Request for Production of Documents served March 21, 2002. (Doc. 40). The Court, by Order dated June 12, 2002, directed Plaintiff to file his Brief in Support of the Motion to Compel on or before June 26, 2002, or the Motion would be deemed withdrawn. (Doc. 44). Accordingly, Plaintiff's Brief in Support was filed on June 18, 2002. The Corrections Defendants, by separate filing, are requesting a Motion for Enlargement of Time Nunc Pro Tunc regarding their Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion to Compel on or before August 16, 2002.
20. On July 22, 2002, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Sanctions with Supporting Brief. (Docs. 56, 57). The Corrections Defendants' Brief in Opposition, pursuant to Pa.MDLR 7.6, is due on or before August 5, 2002. The Corrections Defendants, by separate filing, are requesting a Motion for Enlargement of Time to respond to Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions on or before August 16, 2002.

Request for an Enlargement of Time Nunc Pro Tunc:

21. The Corrections Defendants, by and through the undersigned attorney, respectfully request an enlargement pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 6(b) until July 31, 2002, to serve their responses to Clark's Interrogatories via facsimile.
22. Fed.R.Civ.P. 6(b) provides, in relevant part:

When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion . . . upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect . . . .

23. "[A] finding of excusable neglect under Rule 6(b)(2) requires both a demonstration of good-faith by the parties seeking the enlargement and also must appear that there was a reasonable basis for not complying within the specified period." Four Seasons Securities Laws Litigation v. Bank of America, 493 F.2d 1288, 1290 (10th Cir. 1974)(finding that because the defendant acted in good faith and there was no indication that the tardiness was part of a strategy designed to gain a tactical advantage, there was no prejudice suffered to the plaintiff from the enlargement of time.)
24. The undersigned attorney respectfully requests that the Court deem the Corrections Defendants' delay in filing the response to Plaintiff's interrogatories a result of excusable neglect in this situation.

25. First, counsel submits that there was a good-faith and reasonable basis in his delay of responding to Plaintiff's Interrogatories.
26. Since the Court's denial of the Corrections Defendants' Motion for a Protective Order on May 20, 2002, the undersigned attorney was heavily involved in preparing for, and ultimately trying, a four day civil rights action in the matter of Ogden v. Stepanik, 96-CV-0435 (Caputo, J.) beginning June 10, 2002.
27. Upon his return to the Office the week of June 17, 2002, the undersigned attorney worked on pressing matters in the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania, as well as, discovery matters in cases under this Honorable Court's jurisdiction.
28. During the week of July 1, 2002, the undersigned attorney's time was consumed in an emergency guardianship matter, In re Weaver, Centre CCP, Orphan's Court, No. 14-02-0268, that ultimately resulted in a hearing before the Honorable Richard Grine on July 8, 2002.
29. In fact, while counsel was in Centre County on July 8, 2002, he went to SCI-Rockview and personally met with Plaintiff Clark regarding this issue, as well as numerous other discovery matters. Counsel indicated to Plaintiff that the discovery responses would be forthcoming. Further, counsel inquired on whether the parties could reach an agreement on numerous issues raised in Plaintiff's June 5, 2002 motion to compel discovery regarding the request for production of documents.

30. As a sign of good-faith and in consultation with his client, the Corrections Defendants' counsel waived the copying costs surround Plaintiff's medical file.
31. Counsel intended to correspond with Plaintiff on these matters that week; however, on July 18, 2002 counsel incurred a serious sinus infection and was in and out of the Office a substantial period of time while he was recovering.
32. During the week of July 22, 2002, in addition to seeking a permanent guardianship in In re Weaver, paragraph 28 supra, counsel did a comprehensive review of his litigation files and found that the matter of responding to Plaintiff's interrogatories continued to be outstanding. Accordingly, counsel has made this his first priority during the week of July 29, 2002.
33. Second, for the reasons that follow, counsel submits that his tardiness was not to gave a tactical advantage over Plaintiff's claims.
34. Specifically, as evidenced by the simultaneously filed Motions, counsel respectfully seeks leave to withdrawal their Motion for Summary Judgment without prejudice so that the parties may have additional time to discuss discovery issues and so that Plaintiff does not feel his discovery opportunities were thwarted. In this regard, counsel is also filing a Motion for a scheduling order from the Court setting a discovery and dispositive motion deadline in this matter. Finally, in an effort to further flesh-out Plaintiff's claims, the Corrections Defendants are seeking leave to depose Plaintiff during the remainder of the discovery period.

35. The Corrections Defendants' motion to withdrawal the Motion for Summary Judgment without prejudice, and motion to set discovery and dispositive motions deadlines will provide the parties with the opportunity to consult over the discovery disputes with the hope of mootng issues. If issues remain, than discovery can continue until this Honorable Court resolve them.
36. Accordingly, based on forgoing, counsel for the Corrections Defendants respectfully requests this Honorable Court to excuse his twenty three (23) day delay in responding to Plaintiff's Interrogatories to the Corrections Defendants and grant this Motion allowing the Responses to be served no later than July 31, 2002 as timely served.

37. Counsel has contacted counsel for the Wexford Defendants, James Young, Esquire regarding this Motion and can aver that he concurs in this Motion.
38. Finally, Counsel sincerely apologizes to Plaintiff; counsel for the non Corrections Defendants; and this Honorable Court for the delay of the response in this matter.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth above, the Corrections Defendants respectfully request the Court to grant them an enlargement of time nunc pro tunc until July 31, 2002 respond to Plaintiff's Interrogatories.

Respectfully submitted,
Office of General Counsel
